

Prague Global Policy Institute

Trade and Development Policy Coherence in the EU and the Czech Republic

Objectives	Activity	Beneficiary	Effect
Deepening Understanding of trade and development cooperation policy coherence. Strengthening Expert Capacities	Research	Experts from NGOs, Government, academia.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. NGOs, government and other experts are more aware of trade and development linkages and need for policy coherence. 2. New research resources available, new contacts for cooperation established, increased networking and communication among national and regional experts on working on policy coherence.
Awareness Raising, Increasing Influence	Policy Paper	Civil Society Organisations, Development Practitioners, Media, Government officials, Decision-makers, Academia	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Practical recommendations for advocacy available. English translation of Policy Paper distributed to Visegrad countries. 2. Increased interest in the Trade & Development issues among general public and beneficiaries.
Advocacy	International Policy Seminar- Senate and National Presidency Seminar- Parliament	Media, government, members of parliament, political parties NGOs, general public	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Recommendations drafted for policy-makers. 2. Government includes NGOs in preparation process for EU trade policy positions and considers globalization strategy 3. Foreign and EU Affairs committees of Parliament opened to NGO input on trade, development and other EU policies, 4. Action Plan drafted for Glopolis and other NGOs. NGOs draft a common action plan for Czech Presidency of the EU
Strengthening National Networks and increasing participation in Europe-wide Networks	Regional Seminar - Capacity Building	Visegrad regional NGOs, national NGOs, EU NGOs, Networks, experts and public.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Trade and development issue become commonplace on agenda of Czechia against Poverty national NGO network 2. Pan-European networking taken place. Expertise shared and synergies planned- regionally and at EU-level.