

Strengthening the capacity of Civil Society in Malta, Cyprus and Slovenia to engage effectively in dialogue with the European institutions over Sustainable Livelihoods in the Mediterranean and the Barcelona Process

Objectives	Activity	Beneficiary	Effect
1. To create a deeper understanding of Civil Society Organisations in Slovenia, Cyprus and Malta on policy issues related to the European-Mediterranean Partnership.	Concept paper drafted defining parameters within which project operates including those issues where the MDGs relate to the Mediterranean countries as well as how the Barcelona process and the ENPI can compliment each other.	Kopin and other NGOs in Malta, Humanitas & Friends of the Earth, Cyprus. Mediate & its members	Better collaboration between civil society in Malta, Slovenia & Cyprus. Heightened awareness of Kopin, Humanitas & Friends of the Earth on Euro-Med issues. Project website created
2. To strengthen advocacy efforts in Cyprus, Malta & Slovenia for progress in the Barcelona process that has a real impact on poverty eradication and contributes to sustainable livelihoods at the grass-root level	NGDOs from Egypt, Jordan, Morocco Palestine and Tunis are trained to develop Local Participatory Sustainability indicators measuring real progress at the grass-root level in the Barcelona Process. At the training a template was given to the participating NGDOs along with a list of priority indicators.	Kopin and other NGOs in Malta, Humanitas & Friends of the Earth, Cyprus. Members of Mediate Mediate & its focal points in Algeria, Egypt, Israel, Jordan, Lebanon, Morocco, Palestine, Syria, Tunis and Turkey	Better collaboration between NGDOs in Malta, Cyprus, Slovenia and those in the Southern Mediterranean Countries. A strengthened capacity among NGDOs in Malta, Cyprus & Slovenia to design appropriate tools to deliver more effective policy work.
3. To create awareness of Europe's commitment to the International Development Agenda, particularly the Millennium Development Goals towards creating a plan to participate in debates that would influence an effective EU-Mediterranean Development Policy.	Meeting between representatives from participating NGDOs from EU-10 to collate the Local Participatory Sustainability Indicators into a Concept Paper as a first step in designing the Advocacy Tool Kit. Organising meetings with MEPs, Foreign Ministers and representatives of the Euro-Mediterranean Parliamentary Assembly.	Policy-makers, Government Representatives, MPs, MEPs and Euro-Med Parliamentarians from participating EU-10 countries.	Public Awareness on EU Development Policy with respect to the Poverty Eradication Campaign. Advocacy Plan for each country including information on: Engaging CSOs at local level.